

SWAN 300B

SWAN 300B

The Swan 300B "Cygnet de Novo" transceiver first appeared in 1973. Frequency range is 80 thru 10 meters with 5 band positions. The rig features a built-in 117 vac power supply, 300 watts PEP output, CW side tone with optional VOX unit capability, built-in speaker, AGC, ALC, S-meter, with excellent sensitivity and selectivity. Weight is 25 pounds, and an optional VX-2 VOX unit and 14-A DC converter was available for mobile 12 volt use. Selling price in 1973 was approx. $500.00.