

Application GRANTED. The Court will consider Defendant Maxwell's corrected memorandum of law, filed at Dkt. No. 75, in ruling on the motion to dismiss.

Plaintiff shall file any opposition, not to exceed twenty pages, by June 19, 2020. Defendant Maxwell shall file any reply, not to exceed eight pages, by July 3, 2020.

The parties shall otherwise comply with the Courts Individual Rules in filing their motion papers.

So Ordered.

Dated: May 21, 2020
New York, New York

LORNA G. SCHOFIELD
UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE

Re: 19-cv-10475 (LGS-DCF), Annie Farmer v. Darren K. Indyke, et al.

Dear Judge Schofield:

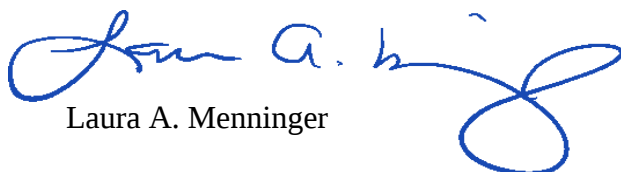

I write on behalf of Ghislaine Maxwell to request leave to file the accompanying Corrected Memorandum of Law in Support of the Motion to Dismiss or Transfer.

The original memorandum filed on May 14, 2020, was twenty-five pages long, consistent with Your Honor's practice standards. That filing, however, mistakenly overlooked your April 29, 2020 order, Doc. 60, limiting the memorandum to twenty pages. The Corrected Memorandum filed herewith is twenty-pages long.

For these reasons, Ms. Maxwell requests leave to file the accompanying corrected document.

Plaintiff has informed undersigned counsel that she requests thirty days from today to file the response.

Respectfully Submitted,

Laura A. Menninger

C: Counsel of Record via ECF