Amy - I thought you received an award letter saying that you were approved for OVS? The claim number would be on that?

Apologies but I must have misplaced that information. I do not have any documentation. My mailing address is [REDACTED] Don't believe I received anything.

How can I locate the claim number? Was there maybe a confirmation email I can search.

Thank you

Hi Amy - this is great to hear! I just received a message from your therapist asking for the claim number; and that is something that you should have on the award letter. Can you get that to her? Or if you would like to give it to me and I can email her with it.

Hope your staying safe and healthy!!

Hi Angela,

Looking forward to seeing you Monday! I have found a fantastic therapist for this survivor. She was my first choice and hope but I didn't know if she would be able to take OVS and she has agreed to. Her name is Shari Eliot and her number is [REDACTED]. She is a little out of the zone the client preferred but her office is on the RW line so very easy to get to from Astoria. The client should use my name when she calls.

See you soon,
Amie

Hi again Angela,

As I reach out to the top notch therapists I know to see if someone can accept OVS reimbursement to see this survivor, do I have consent to share what case this is related to?

Hi Angela,

Great! We are confirmed for 3/9 10am-11am and very much looking forward to it. Do I understand correctly that this client is seeking someone in private practice who will accept OVS directly (not OVS reimbursement to the client paying out of pocket)?

Hi Amie – 3/9 works at 10am. I think an hour should be enough.

Also I heard back from the victim in Astoria and she said she is open to therapists in midtown if you happen to have any referrals for that area.

I really appreciate your help!

Hi Angela,

Yes, I think this coming Monday is a little too soon. How much time do you think would be ideal? We could do Monday 2/9 10-11am if an hour works (that's right after staff meeting when most people hold the time free so easy to get everyone in the room). There's a meeting at 11am on Mondays every other week so an hour is often the best we can squeeze into that timeframe but we could look at a Monday afternoon or 3/30 is open 10am-12pm.

Hey there, we've come up dry in Astoria. Can she possibly travel outside of that one neighborhood? Astoria doesn't have a ton of great resources. It's also slightly harder to find referrals that take OVS directly. Typically, if someone doesn't have insurance or isn't able to pay, we hope that they can be a bit flexible about where the services are offered. If they can be, it really opens things up quite a bit.

Thanks Chris! She will need someone who will accept OVS.

Hello Angela, sorry for the delay! I'm copying Amie who has much deeper knowledge of good therapists throughout the city than I do. Does she have insurance or is she able to pay out of pocket?

Hey Chris - hope you are having a great week! Would you or your colleagues know a therapist in Astoria? One of the Epstein victims is asking for referrals close to her. Any guidance is much appreciated!
