Good morning Jeffrey ,
Have a question .

I still don't receive my documents and Arda told me now it takes forever so it could take couple of month more ,and yesterday Bebe called me from the office that Darren has for me a new lease agreement for the apt to sign . It's mean I have to deal with my wife but I spoke to her recently and she complained again that there is no money . I'm afraid she's not going to sign anything until I have something for her on our joint bank account . Please could help .

Thank you♥*
