Just weather HeadsUp for Paris,

Appears Paris will have overcast skies with Rain, most of the week until Thursday or Friday, topical European troph covers France brining rain and cloud cover.

Some isolated heavy rain showers, in the forecast. If we arrive Paris around 7 to 8pm usually the heavy rain should be dissipating since the sun usually fuels the storms.

Highs 71 degrees / lows 56 degrees.,

Certainly we circumnavigate the Wx cells,
Just heads up,

Thx
Larry
