Exit Glacier Hike:

Warm clothing, layers, boots, water, hats, gloves, sunglasses, raincoats?

Exit Glacier (near Seward)

*Ranger-led walks at Exit Glacier at 10am, 2pm and 4pm

You can hike right up to Seward's Exit Glacier and feel the dense blue ice while listening to it crackle. Walk the lower trail to get a good photo in front of the glacier face. There is a short ranger-led walk daily at 11am and 3pm, from Memorial Day through Labor Day. Also, a longer hike to the Harding Ice Field (a trailside walk to a 3,500-foot summit) takes place at 9 a.m. on Saturdays in July and August. There are lots of other places to explore and camp for the avid backpacker.

Directions: Head south from Anchorage on the Seward Highway-or north from Seward-the turnoff is clearly marked at Seward Highway mile 3.7 and is nine miles long (half of it's gravel).

Explore Time: 1 - 5 hours.
