Jeffrey, I will understand if you don't agree.... you already did sooooo much for me. you are so boundlessly caring and generous.. I really don't think I deserve all this incredible generosity from you...

I feel bad always asking you something because you already give me so much! and I asked you about it only because when I learned that I cannot host my parents in place where I stay, they are considering not coming to my graduation, because they could not afford to pay for accommodation... and I don't know if in such short time I can find some other place for them to stay for free..

it makes me very sad because it was very special for me to have my family here for such important event..

Hi Jeffrey, sorry to bother you... I need to find a place for my parents to stay from the second week of their visit because I can have them at place where I stay only for few days... I talked to Lesley and she said that it's possible to arrange a place for them in one of your apartments. I wanted to know if you would be ok with that?
