Good afternoon Myla;

I don't understand what you mean.

It is the same company I don't understand why one transaction went through and the other one didn't....please try the card again and let me know what happens.

As I explained to you a bank transfer it is very complicated to do.

That is why I wanted to give you a check.

Hi Patricia,

Good morning.. Please find attached invoice for DP. Please contact your bank to authorize payment to Shore support(St. Martin Agent). It seems your card didn't go through possibly because its a foreign transaction.

Phil says thank you! For his shirt

Take care

Myla
