Jeffrey,

I have been reading the newspapers since Xmas about you and I would like you to know that, should you ever need it, I am here to bring you my full support over all the ridiculous and uncomfortable allegations against you. I know you don't wish to involve me to protect myself because you love me and you know that my love for you is pure.

But, if you need someone to defend you or in a way help you over such awful allegations in court, I will always be there for you.

I wish everybody could know and understand the fabulous, wonderful man you are. You are different, YES, very different from any other men but not the way the stories are telling. You are the most brilliant man anyone can meet on this planet, too intelligent to be understood. You are deeply good with a pure heart and a real sunshine to anyone who is meeting you. I know your default, oh yes! Your Achille's heel! but you would never use it to hurt any girls.

I wish the truth could establish about you. All these stories are not the real story! I am a fighter for justice and I am really annoyed because these girls are only manipulating you for money. Also it is so unfair to Andrew.

Maybe I should do a film to reestablish the truth about you?!!

I need the best professionals to be with me for that and I need you to help me for that, if you ever think it could be a good idea in the future? (I think it is).

I did not study film at NYU for nothing!! my sensitivity, expertise in production and understanding about you, combined with top film professionals would show the truth in an emotional and captivating way...

Please let me know if at the moment, I simply can help you.
