i made this picture the day before yesterday . that that brazilian girl, which I was studying with this summer in paris. she came from brazil again, just for me , can you imagine ?

its like a time for miracles, today I woke up so early and decided to go take a shower right away, just like you did it , when we had a morning together.
and i was having a day full of ideas, not dreams. even if i don't know how to realise those ideas in real.
and i was walking so much !
and i ate 5 times a day. i ate only 1 or 2 in Uzbekistan.

I start to think of starting a sports life now. yes . I wish to dance since I was a child, I want to dance and so fitness.
ands so strange and new to me, but I look into my future wide eyes open .
