Jeffrey,

I've been tied up this morning and am at lunch now. I'll try to call later, but in the meantime, my view on this is that you should lay low. I don't see how what you are proposing will have a positive outcome. It will serve to stir up the pot further.

I would like to consider publishing a reward of 50k or more, in the newspapers for each person who can provide concrete information that proves that these stories are lies. since its all about money, let her friends, family, turn her in, It will create more criticism, , maybe its not me , but "friends of the truth ". issues ? Either way it would be fun
