U were once generous enough to offer your car & driver while we were in Paris & I was wondering if we could take u up on the offer once again provided u weren't using him. Of course we would prefer it if u were joining us 4 the trip. This goes without saying. We will b there from Dec. 26-29. If this is any trouble don't worry about it. There will b many more trips ;). I thought I would only ask bec u said that we could use him any time we came 2 Paris otherwise I would never b so presumptuous. Pls let me know either way. Thank u.
