I am wondering whether would be easier and faster that your attorney draft a document.

I am happy to pay for his time.

I am affraid that Gunderson will be slow and not in my benefit

I think what you say makes great sense. But David now wants to see everything in writing and signed. So he took the Gunderson document, had his lawyer edit it two ways, signed both copies and told me to forward to Steve Ray. Boris can counter, initial and sign. Or propose and sign something new. Or do nothing, I guess. I give up!! :)
