Working like a dog.

Had a lot of catching up in emails as I was off the email for the most it in Zagreb. sleeping is better but still not good. I have never used ghb (did not even know that it is used for sleep) but Ambien and Lunesta.

The problem is that I got used to Ambien and Lunesta due to so many intercontinental trips. Although I stopped 10 days ago, I am still facing a lot of REM sleep rebound which makes dreams super intense. Hopefully in few days will be over.

How are you?
