Yes, Jeffrey, I agree to everything you say. On the other hand to change is much more difficult than it looks. And I know, that I'm trying to change and I have already changed since I came to NY in autumn. I want you to know that I really do listen to your words and advices about the looks and appearance and I'm very thankful to you for sponsoring me to improve my looks..I'm probably not the first or the last artist who needs advise and support and I'm really blessed to have the person like you so close..

As for me giving something in return for all help I received- music is all I have.. I do hope that you enjoy when I play to you-at least a little. Unfortunately I'm not good in other things such as massage or flirting...

I know there are thousands of people who would like to meet you and to be on such terms with you as me. I'm so happy, so grateful and challenged at the same time.

Yes, but you should decide how you can help, what can you do. I appreciate the thanks, but am dissappointed in the lack of motivation to help. you have not asked [REDACTED] or anyone how can you help what can you do? etc. I believe in you, I can support you, HOWEVER I fear you are on the road to performing in Lithuania. for your lifetime. I guess that is ok if that is what you want. . I told you that how you look and dress would effect your career. you have ignored it. I am there for you , I can stand behind you , and protect, but i can't pull you to success. . the mannes guy is the agent for the guarnari quartet, and new yorks violin connected person.

Thank you so much for taking care of me and for dedicating your time to get in touch with people and organize meetings. I'm really grateful for all you do for me. It's such a gift to have you!!
