They took a blood sample to examine my hormonal profile. H= did ultrasonography- again w negative results for any disease.

But doctor said being late after that shot is quite okay in my organism,=beacuse it probably needs longer time to restart after such a long time. I=#39;m going to see them again next week for my blood results. He recommend=d to wait another week, having a glass of red wine every evening, being re=axed and I'll be all good, ready to start w pills.
