Hi Jeffrey,

See below-- the Forbes writer for you covers 'entrepreneurs, start-ups' etc is there a business endeavor/company that you have been significantly involved with?

Should I ask Rich or Cecile?

Thanks for your input,

[REDACTED],

The Forbes writer we are using is an entrepreneur writer.

I am trying to think of an angle for Jeffrey so we can easily include him in the title... can you think of anything that might be considered entrepreneur focused that Jeffrey has been involved with lately?

Disney Epstein declined doing a piece - but at this point we are paying to put a piece in Forbes and HuffPost and do not require Disney Jeff for that now.

We can still write articles on other sites and should - and I am available to discuss that anytime today.

Best

Tyler
