Aaron's has been questioning whether t= remain in the sport at all, so that's why they haven't committed to a spon=orship yet. They want to spend more time with Brian and get to know him as w=ll. (I saw an email from 2 days ago from one of the head people at Aarons w=nting to spend time with BV and myself at the Sonoma race this month) Aaron= does not know of the blogs or articles about me. MWR only found out about t=em on Thursday and feels like they need to inform Aarons of them since they=are contemplating sponsoring BV. There is a chance they may not want to spo=sor a car at all regardless, but this certainly will not help the cause to p=rsuade them to come on board. He is not trying to blame me for the difficul=y in finding a sponsor or for the fact Aarons hasn't committed yet. But we h=ve to be realistic in that once they find out about the media, it may deter=them away from Brian.
