you should not , yet use ralph lerner . I gave you h=s name as i will always give you help. but as i have said before ,, he is merely a sub contractor - not the a=chitect. These things will come to a bad end if done wit=out a plan in mind, having seperate attnys in different =ields without overall detailed coordination is a major factor in the=current mess. it will cost tens if not hundreds of millions in errors. = sorry.
