i spoke with Eric around 10am this morning. He expressed exhaustion from the negotiation process and said that our 600k math does not add up. He said if he knew this was going to be a back and forth negotiation he would have bumped up prices to begin with. He then said he would do 635,448 and i said that number was not going to work. I reminded him that his 639k number reflected at 10k discount which was still less than his 20k adding error from quote 1 to quote 2. I said although i do not have any indication jee would agree to this lets split the difference between 600 and 639 at 620. He said he needed to think about that and would get back to us this morning. Not sure if your email was a result of communication with eric since we spoke.
