Benny =alled to further discuss the price and confirmed that he gave the best =rice for you. He told that a dealer offered him 77k for the stones. He =ill be very happy to take the stones back, but it is very important for =im to keep the friendship and money mean nothing to him. He also told =hat it is the a big difference in quality and cut between the stones =rom Sotheby's and his. Also his diamond have a triple X rating. When I =entioned that the certificate is from 2007 he answered that 2007 =iamonds were at their highest price, and he bought it later. I asked to =end me an email so I can get the information accurate. Benny believes =hat I am giving you inaccurate information...
