Good Morning. If this is the case, which it seems very accurate that Chavez has about 6 months left or less; the Constitution says that elections must be called in 30 days. I think there is a very high probability that someone from the Chavez movement, but less radical will win the elections. I don't think that neither the country nor the opposition leaders are ready to get enough votes to win and constitute a government far right. Anyways i see the venezuelan and PDVSA flying today....
