Thank you. Does it need to be a lawyer in NY, or should it be Miami since we will be FL residents?

As you don't think I am being fair re your pre nup, I suggest you talk to a lawyer in New York, and I'll pay, you choose. I think you might benefit from third party advice, the sentence that you are not getting married to get rich, is a sign that you do not understand what is standard, the idea that you can still work, though you know that not to be a reality, is emblematic of not fully understanding the ramifications, . I can't do more than tell you I disagree and then pay for you to ask a disinterested third party expert.
