Ahh!! I've tried...I had [REDACTED] set up to be in the comedy film I completed. Sent all the dates to Eva in advance. Ultimately she couldn't make the dates work. I even tried to get together with her when they were out here, set firm plans and Eva cancelled last minute. I promise, every project of mine that happens, [REDACTED] will be offered an opportunity.

Let me know if you want me to put the Skinny Corp. guys in touch. I want to see them succeed, as I invested in them 6 years ago, and although their distribution coverage and product sales are great, they need to now market the product with a star, and they don't have the budget for it.

Hope you're doing great!!

We've been short on inventory which we have now solved with our manufacturer so we will be back on shelf by next week.

Challenge for the company is to fund itself to positive cash flow which is going to require $1.5- $2.0.

The funding with Apfelbaum's group fell through=and we are not moving forward with them

The reason being that Bill and the managing director of their investment group did not see the business the same way and the overall group decided to pull out.

There is more to the story but we have moved on=and are seeking alternatives now.

Our pH water was produced for the first time yesterday and we will begin shipping to the=chains next week.

Margins are 50% on this item and interest has been strong so far.

New package for Skinny Water=is going to require some capital that we are working on.

I'll try you today .
