I hope you had a nice birthday + chocolate pie. I disagree with your description - I didn't make promises - and we stopped your work on this thing well before - as you say - you did your part. As I said before - if you really feel you need compensation - you should speak to Alan. I don't want to talk to you this morning and I'm disappointed that you feel like you have to speak to Phil's partner. I don't think you are being fair and its more than sad.

Im back from my birthday . i hope you are aware of my friendship and how seriously i take it. I find it troubling that you ask me to do something , make promises , then after i do my part, and only after, you change your mind about fulfilling your agreement. I am having breakfast with phils partner, and would like you to call me before hand so that i may tell him what you have decided. I hope you will be fair,
