Jeff,
My last day at the College is June 21, and then we head off for a much need=d vacation. When I return on July 1, my office will be in the School of Pu=lic Health. Let me know how I can help before the end of the month, or aft=r.
I was in Vermont this past weekend, and wore one of my sweatshirts...and wa= asked about it!
Perfect fit.
Stay well.
Ira

Dear Jeffrey,

I apologize for taking so long to respond to your specific request about th= nursing pathway. I am attaching a summary of the School of Nursing experi=nce associated with an approved plan for a new building. My "disclaimers=" 1) This is an unofficial summary from speaking with School of Nursing=counterparts; 2) This summary was not reviewed or approved for accuracy by=the Medical Center administration or the SON, but I am confident is direct=onally accurate.

While the practical steps for all new facilities and major construction at =he University are straightforward, the true pathway for each project is en=irely unique. CDM has a solid history of excellence and achievement, but w= can't ride a bicycle to get to the moon. I hope that we can inspire you=to consider helping CDM to achieve a vision shared by all: CDM will be ind=sputably ranked among the top 5 dental schools, and arguably #1 by any mea=ure. We are all going to deeply miss Ira's leadership, wisdom, and day =o day presence, but I am certain he will help in any way that he can going=forward and be available 24/7. University Presidents/Deans come and go, bu= the overall vision does not change too much—new leaders adjust the road=map.

Please let me know if you would like to discuss this summary, have question= or would like additional information. I can send some general background=information specific to CDM in the next few days if you would like.

Finally, I have not mentioned your potential interest in helping the dental=school to anyone except my husband (physician here). If you would like, I=am happy to reach out to Herbert Irving to ask if he would be willing to s=eak with you about his philanthropy experience supporting Cancer at Columb=a/NYPH. He and Florence are dear friends of ours, and he is an exceptional=individual.

Best, Sara
