Whereas lottery is based on pure=probability, do you really think getting into Harvard is as well? In the=law firm I am currently working, I have the title of a lawyer without ha=ing actually passed any bar so I think even impossible can be possible. Yo= should know what I mean having been one if the youngest or even the young=st partners in bear stearn's history, haven't you?

Is it really new?

I want to get into Harvard, Columbia, NYU or maybe Stanford.

I think I should use the argument that I would like to use&nb=p;my LL.M. studies to do some research and to find a topic in comparitiv= law for my PhD at my university in Vienna. I could try to g=t the head of the comparative law faculty in Vienna to write me a recommen=ation. What do you think?
