Jeff,

I thought yo= may be interested in this recent nature publication of ours, or our corres=onding write up in the nytimes:

The basic idea is that moral outrage is often= subconsciously at least, motivated by trying to signal ones own values. An= this motivation won't be sensitive to whether the transgression was intend=d or whether punishment is proportionate or good for the cause.

Happy to discuss next time we meet, if you are interest=.
