Hi Jeffrey,

[REDACTED] See list below: The list provides needed platforms for your press to rank high.

- * Two entirely new websites, with articles, press history, bio, photos, state maps etc. 8 pages for each one. So 16 pages in total. Each page (1=) is fully optimized on search engines with meta tags and linked to google, bing and others.
- * Wrote the foundation's summary and your bio.
- * 19 public profiles with foundation's summary, bio and labelled and tagged 62 photos for each one.
- * Labelled 62 photos for ongoing use.
- * Set up your blog with ongoing content, archived photos, links and press:
www.thejeffreyepsteinfoundation.com <http://www.thejeffreyepsteinfoundation.com/>
- * Reset your old websites and redirected domains to one location.
- * Continuous update of your public profiles, blog and websites with tagged photos and press.
- * Rewrote your Wikipedia site (as much as they would allow anyway). And get them to push down your mug shot and other negative content.
