Just came back from the outdoor meeting-speech given by Francois Hollande -socialist candidate for the Pdt election-in Paris in front of 100 000 people this afternoon and we are just one week before the vote for the first round. It was fun but the temperature was low! Its cold in Paris!
Read the last trilogy of books written by Haruki Murakami. I enjoyed it because its entertaining but not as good as the book I recommended you to read from him.
Also read a book written by Herta Muller who won the Nobel Prize of Litterature in 2009 because I wanted to enter into her world which I did not know.
Went to the theater and saw Cate Blanchett in Big and Small from Botho Strauss. It was excellent And work...work...work...
