=0A=0A=div>I have been spending a lot of time making nice with everyone and crafting an exit strategy for all of the work. It spans 12 to 18 months and closes out 5 different portfolios. You advised me to give this 100 percent and to build a strong and credible exit in the same way I did the entrance so I did. And am trying. I [REDACTED] built a financial transition, and am now shaping the communications strategy for foundation exit across the various efforts. The leadership team has been sending me nice notes about my terrific attitude and ability to move forward with hard instructions. They want me to consider other internal leadership roles once I close this team down. Not sure that is the best plan.
