Hello Jeffrey.

This is [REDACTED]

Jean-Luke now changed his mind and wants to send her back to Miami this Monday. He says because she is too short for show (but at 3 days she has already done two show-room) and she had a weak book (although she was cast and was going to have photoshoot look-book on Sunday for 00).

As far as I knew she likes New York and she would like to stay. But she is afraid that she will be evicted from the model's apartment, and there is no work for her also because it is not clear about the visa. I offered to introduce her to you, but didn't explain to her special details yet. Maybe Can you help her to stay at least another few days (can be up to your arrival), you get to see her and if you will like, I'll talk to her after?

Let me know.

Anastasiya
