jermaine do you really think Amen and AI is more important than JEE having phones on GSJ
you need to learn to prioritize your work

why do you need desktop to determine how many licenses are being used
i do not want to wait for you to purchase a computer to obtain this answer please coordinate with steve and provide tomorrow am thank you

Good afternoon Rich,

Please be advised that, since our last conversation, I had not been back on LSJ until 12:30 today. I have been working with Amen since yesterday morning pertaining to restoring the remote connection to the AI server which has been off-line since Tuesday. In the interim, I made the necessary runs for LSJ/GSJ to get supplies.

When I went over today, my purpose was to gather the requested information. However, the laptop failed in the middle of the process and would not reboot. I will acquire the PC desktop that we discussed and load it with the necessary software required and retry tomorrow.

Regards,

Jruan

=ermaine,

We will hold off on the Activation Keys until we know the actual number required.

That should not be an issue as we will not need them until the phones are installed but the sooner we get the number the sooner we can get the correct quantity ordered.
