Well. I sent you a thank you email (it's a pathetic medium but what can I do?) with a panda riding a rocking horse and then watched for you at Isla Holbox, Mexico thinking you might show up for a snorkel, but you missed them (below). How was Pareeee? I am now officially working on my book (!). And using a small bit of your money to construct a shame totem pole (corporations, not investment bankers, although your head would make a very good wood carving) for the serpentine exhibit next month. I think you would approve. Needless to say, I miss New York.
