Jeffrey,

[REDACTED] of Chicago was featured in a press release reference the VC1 unit I mentioned previously on 6/17/11. He is definitely still in the FBI and in Chicago, not in Florida representing Cara L. Holmes.

The question of just how Mark David Quinn, high powered securities attorney who was working in California as recently as his wife Karen's 2/21/11 blog, apparently as the Chief Risk Officer for First Allied in San Diego, ends up representing Cara Holmes in Florida. I guess being her "friend" is as good an explanation as any but it is odd.

He and his semi-famous wife are living in a rented 33rd floor sky palace on the beach while he commutes from California and she is in her rented apartment in Pembroke Pines jumping from low level legal job to the next.
