I think that's a great idea.... and we should be thinking of such initiatives..... I am planning to bring summit series to the middle east.....

If you are serious about science conference, you could easily send me an official letter and I will bring it up with HH..... but I also think it might be wise to look at partners who are specialized.....I will ask around.....

I think the region definitely needs to expand its thinking!!!!

By the way, when you met with HH you had a long discussion, was there any concrete ideas that came out of your meeting??
