Couldn't tell if you were happy with note or if there was more to do, like public statement?

Are you doing ok?

Mtg with Billy was really a hard one. My bosses were not helpful. I think he was disappointed in me. He seemed to like the solid waste work. Everything else he hated. Boris will know best. Feeling trapped but like I have more to do in life.

Can't decide if I should come out fighting or move on to something better. I used to have high hopes for me. Now I feel like I've wasted time. Not sure what to do.
