Everything? I already told Michael as much as I can, without involving you. My question was whether the new attorney he gave me is the right person for the job. Michael already said yes. I only asked for your help to discreetly verify that. Either way, I first need to see what I have, in order for anyone to be able to determine whether it is enough to proceed. I need to speak with someone at the agency to get all my documents. Unless you still have a reason why I shouldn't, I'd like to take care of that this week.
