i am wasting my time working at the foundation?
it seems like a whole lot of energy and effort for not much (personally or even for the poorest) not sure what i would do if i quit - or if i should just hang on until something better comes along?

men are much better at quitting and diving off the boat, even if there is no option. women need to go from one raft to another raft.

the thought of practicing medicine every day bored me to death.

i wish i could learn to think like a business person and be a zillionaire
