Can we help you innovate, disrupt and inspire your team?

Tania has been very busy performing and presenting keynote speeches on creativity, innovation, entrepreneurship, leadership, disruption, social inclusion and diversity at major events and conferences.

We are currently taking lots of bookings for the remainder of 2016 and 2017 so if you are organising an event or conference and want to inspire your team, organisation, conference delegates, or department she is your lady. There is a real shortage of women leaders, innovators and entrepreneurs on the speaking platform.

Opinion piece in the Huffington Post

The jobs of yesterday no longer exist and the jobs of tomorrow haven't been invented yet.

Over the next five to 10 years, it is estimated that up to 40 percent of companies on the S & P will be disrupted by rapidly advancing technologies <<http://CreativeUniverse.us2.list-manage1.com/track/click?u=9361d429884a18a9d6024014d&id=09cc82a6fb&e=633fc4c199>> and the entrepreneurs are adapting quickly to this new environment. And according to research from the CSIRO, almost 50 percent <<http://CreativeUniverse.us2.list-manage.com/track/click?u=9361d429884a18a9d6024014d&id=01c3fadcbf&e=633fc4c199>> of current Australian jobs will no longer exist over the next decade due to automation, computerisation and other new technologies. And some jobs will continue to exist but will be performed by those in cheaper labour markets overseas.
