
From: Heather Gray <[REDACTED]>
Sent: Thursday, September 15, 2016 12:25 PM
To: Jeffrey Epstein (jeevacation@gmail.com)
Cc: Joe Avantario
Subject: RE: possible sales 9.15.16.xlsx

Sorry, it's the =chiale at $34, not the Giacometti.

From: Heather Gray
Sent: Thursday, September 15, 2016 8:22 AM
To: Jeffrey Epstein (jeevacation@gmail.com) <jeevacation@gmail.co=>
Cc: Joe Avantario <[REDACTED]>
Subject: possible sales 9.15.16.xlsx

Hi Jeffrey,

Attached is a chart showing possible sales. Th= first six works are currently being offered for sale (the first five thro=gh Larry Gagosian, the sixth through Christie's as a private sale). =nbsp;The remaining works are not currently with a dealer or auction house.

Leon initially told Joe that he anticipated selling =he Giacometti for $34 million and the Braque for $7 million, but he told m= $30 and $6, so I told Joe to use the higher numbers for cash flow purpose= until I have a chance to confirm with Leon.

We haven't received any offers on any of the w=orks to my knowledge, but Larry is showing the Giacometti and the Picasso i= a show opening next week at 980 Madison, so hopefully there will be some =nterest after that.

I'll be at 760 Park this morning so please cal= me on my cell phone ([REDACTED]) or email me if you have any questions =r need anything else.

Best,

Heather