Dear Vassi,

Following our discussion at the Fendi dinner party last week in Rome I thought about your proposition of working for [REDACTED]. I wondered if this offer was still available and if you could find me a job or internship starting in September.

I am willing to work hard and the opportunity of moving to London attracts me very much.

We can organize a call or a meeting in London if that's good for you.

Please tell me what you think and what I should do to provide you with anything that is needed.

Thank you for your time and help.

Best regards,

[REDACTED]
