Build your connected home.

With so many different products out there, it can be confusing to figure out how to create a connected home. Turns out that's something we know a thing or two about. So we've picked out a few of our favorite Works with Nest products and added them to the Nest Store. They're products that can connect to Nest to do thoughtful things and make your life easier.

We're starting with switches, lights, a doorbell and a sprinkler controller – with more on the way. Click on a product below to see how it works with Nest.
