I think that is a reasonably=good approach. I might make the central point that court documents are a b=ck door way to make protected libelous allegations. Plaintiffs in pursuit =f settlements can wildly and improbably allege anything they want--the med=a then can repeat this without any obligation to verify. I would add this =s particular true of the British tabloid press, and in particular, the Dai=y Mail and its campaign against Prince Andrew. Then issue the emphatic den=al.
