Good evening Gregory,

First and foremost I truly apologize for all this misunderstanding regarding the orders delivered.

You ever ordered an extra item more than needed that was a mistake on our part so as the 14 weeks mentioned on the orders.

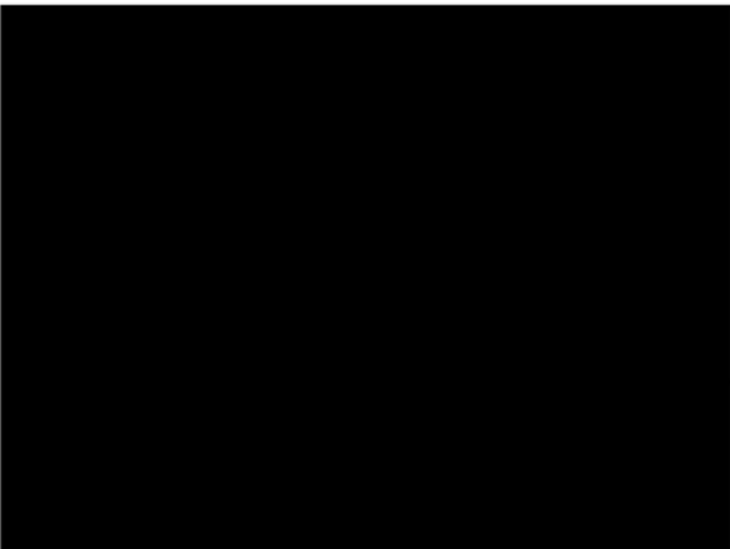

I also like to confirm that your next delivery is arriving to it's destination on the dates requested 5, 6 and 7 of January 2015.

I already had a meeting with my staff regarding all of this situation and moving forward feel free to contact me for anything you might need.

Once again my apologies and have a great evening.

Rosana Morton
