Good Afternoon,

I am a little confused in reference to the banquette in the kitchen. [REDACTED] informed me today that you going to use the same fabric. The last conversation that I had with you and [REDACTED] was that due to the high maintenance of the existing fabric, you would select different fabric and would investigate another company for construction. Also part of that conversation was purchasing of fabric for the 2 chaises in the living room, which you had indicated you wanted instead of the sofa.

As of date we are still waiting for the sealer for lons work, which I believe you know about [REDACTED] hence have not put Rooms 1,2 or 3 back together. If this is not going to arrive before your next visit, we will set rooms up and once sealer on site will dismantle rooms again!

Could you please clarify

Thanks

Warmest regards

[REDACTED]
