The fun "activities" (such as the wine tasting, flash pi=kling, academy screeners, Murray leading a game of Diplomacy, etc.) are en=irely separate from our day intense conference discussions, which will be =n serious topics related to your specific interests. The fun activities=are at night, all at the hotel, will be lots of fun. It's just a break fro= the intense sessions during the day, and people can play and do things th=t are interesting and unusual. My educational project got funded by one of=the microsoft billionaires, who wanted to take it and turn it into a massi=e on-line business. He loved it, and the general reaction to it has been o=erwhelmingly positive, and I heard that it submitted for two educational p=izes as well. Now, preparing five talks for Davos, and am also going to Israel for a week to help them with their new science museum. They liked t=at illusory contour sculpture that I showed you, but I am going to make an=illusory contour sculpture in the form of the Star of David.

I really tried hard to make this weekend enjoyable and fun f=r YOU! I saw Pablos the other day when I was up in Seattle, and he knows t=e people you don't, and said it was an absolutely awesome kick-ass group. =he assembled are smart, fun, and characters. Not just some stiff and dull =vory tower academic types. There is no wallpaper.
