Dear Jeffrey
Paula told me that you liked the article in the J-Post. Thanks!

I wanted to send you a video that I made out of a powerpoint presentation, and ask you for your opinion.

It is a big dream since about 12 years.

To build a very complete, comprehensive Encyclopedia of Jewish Classical music, from the baroque age until today

It is a collection of 22 CD's but more important, once the recordings are finished, they will nourish a web site that will grow indefinitely, like a real Wikipedia of Music where every people will be able to bring a sound file related to Jewish music.

So, a great educational project, memory project, and a way to send the Jerusalem Symphony into the stellar place it belongs

Could you have a look and tell me what you think?
It is here:

(I put as a background my "Suite Yiddish" based on tunes of my friend Lanzberg who was Edith Piaf's composer)

Best wishes
Frederic
