OK. I know MIT is about to make an ask to him.

Let me know if there is any traction or anything I can do.

About to launch a "journal of design and science" with MIT Press and MIT Library. Pretty exciting. Sort of in Brockman's wheel house, but a bit more media Lab. I'll be involving him and Danny and others. I think you'll like it. Will have a cool printed version and online version but more importantly will change the way we do academic publishing. Along the same lines of what we've been talking about but have gotten full support from MIT Press and Libraries and sort of subverting from the academic publishing side which is fun.

I wonder if we got any reaction from Mort on the idea of funding the antidisiplinary/design science idea...
