When we spoke the other day I said we were closing our deals and getting back on our feet... Deals are closed and I'm on the road generating new business (in Philadelphia now)... I have no concrete news on timing of your loan yet because I'm just starting to regain visibility... we are not paying down any loans right now and all walnut etc loans got converted to equity behind new financing. Can we pick this up in a few weeks once I have more visibility into cash flow?
